

What Will You Learn?

Topeka Housing Authority has provided this training to more than 50 Public Housing Executive Directors and Managers at three different training opportunities in December 2003 and January 2004.

Workshop Objectives:

Knowledge: Get participants up to speed quickly on the elements and operation of a program integrity/anti-fraud initiative.

Systems Design: Reduce the time and expense involved in developing and/or refining program integrity/anti-fraud activities.

Skills: Help participants acquire skills they need to engage in program integrity/anti-fraud activities

Contacts: Help participants identify colleagues with similar interests and concerns.

Learn the Whys, Whats and Hows of reducing fraud in affordable housing programs

WHY using anti-fraud tools and practices will contribute to your success and your organization's success.

WHAT it takes to make anti-fraud activities an everyday part of your operation.

HOW to reduce Fraud.
Tools, roles played, actions taken.

You will get powerful new skills that you can use right away to:

- Make money
- Reduce staff stress and burnout
- Satisfy participants
- Create partnerships
- Improve performance
- Reduce Costs

TOPEKA HOUSING AUTHORITY

Reduce Fraud in 7 Steps

*A How-to Session for Public Housing Authority
Executive Directors and Managers.*

John Johnston, Executive Director of THA leads a workshop segment.

*To learn more about this and other Training
Events, contact Don Miller, 357-8842, ext. 468
or e-mail to dmiller@tha.gov.*